Conditions of participation for seminars organized directly by Sabine Rittner

I am aware that upon registration of the seminar participation a cancellation fee of 20% of the seminar fee is due 30 days before the start of the seminar. Afterwards, the entire seminar fee as well as the costs for accommodation and meals will be charged, unless a substitute participant can be placed. During the seminar I take full responsibility for myself and for my actions, especially when third parties or things should be damaged. For every risk that I enter, I am responsible alone. I will inform the seminar leader if I am mentally, physically or psychologically not able to be fully resilient or if I am in a vulnerable state of health. I am aware that this is a self-experience seminar, which is not a substitute for medical or psychotherapeutic treatment.
